

Andrea Snow

10 South Hanover Drive • High Point, NC 27264 • (336) 222-2222 • asnow9@uncg.edu

Education:

Masters of Science - The University of North Carolina at Greensboro – expected December 2009

Gerontology

Bachelor of Science - The University of North Carolina at Greensboro (UNCG) – December 2007

Nutrition and Wellness

- ★ GPA – 3.8
- ★ Dean's List – three times
- ★ Chancellor's List – three times
- ★ Kappa Omicron Nu Honor Society
- ★ The Aden McGee Scholarship - 2008–2009

Internship Experience:

Eldercare Program Intern - Lifespan Services, Greensboro, NC Spring 2009

- Created, organized, and supervised activities for an Alzheimer's respite program
- Developed and implemented a special volunteer-education program to train volunteers in the care of and interaction with Alzheimer's patients
- Facilitated Alzheimer's support group for client caregivers

Academic Research:

Research Assistant - Epidemiology-UNCG, Department of Public Health Summer and Fall 2008

- Performed data analysis of 4,053 Forsyth County residents presenting for stroke screening

Presenter - State of NC Undergraduate Research Symposium Fall 2008

- Conducted epidemiological research on self-perceived overweight
- Presented on Overweight in the Stroke Belt: A comparison between self-perceived overweight and clinical standards

Research Assistant - Nutrition-UNCG, Department of Nutrition Summer and Fall 2007

- Conducted face-to-face interviews with over 50 elderly adults on nutrition knowledge, attitudes, and beliefs of free-living older adults in Guilford County

Academic Projects:

Sport and Exercise Nutrition: Fall 2008

- Developed an exercise and diet prescription plan for pre-hypertensive adults

Community Nutrition: Spring 2008

- Wrote grant proposal for a nutritional and exercise program for hypertensive women over 50

Nutrition Assessment: Fall 2007

- Presented on Screening for Malnutrition in the Elderly

Community Involvement:

- Promoted Alzheimer's Support Groups in faith based organizations in Guilford County 2008–present
- Established a Meals-on-Wheels program for the elderly in Archdale, NC Spring 2008

Computer Applications:

- Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and SPSS

On-Campus Employment:

Learning Center, Tutor in Anatomy, Physiology, Nutrition, and Chemistry 2007–present

Disability Services, Note taker for visually impaired student 2007–present